Waterway Guide Magazine releases Winter/Spring 2007 issue The Cruising Authority's new magazine issue debuts at Miami Boat Show

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—Waterway Guide, America's most trusted resource for cruising boaters, today released the Winter/Spring 2007 issue of their magazine, which promotes coastal boating and focuses on the cruising lifestyle.

Debuting at the Miami Boat Show (Feb. 15-19), the Winter/Spring 2007 issue includes the following cruising features:

- Eight Spring Cruises. WGM writers lead three- to five-day cruises in eight regions from New England south to the Gulf Coast.
- Waterway History: The Ironclad Monitor. A look at the Monitor's historic clash with the Merrimac at the Battle of Hampton Roads.
- Cruising the Tenn-Tom Waterway. Ron and Eva Stob, founders of the America's Great Loop Cruiser's Association, tour this popular cruising route to the Gulf.
- A Cruising Family Finds a Routine. Part two in a four-part series of one family's year-long, 8,000-mile cruise focuses on the trip from Montreal to Chicago.
- Calendars of Events & Regional Updates. Local coverage from Maine to Texas.
- Coastal Marina Directory. Select marinas from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico are featured with stunning aerial photography.

Waterway Guide Magazine offers readers the only publication of its kind to deliver relevant, timely information about America's waterways while featuring lively stories and colorful photography designed to encourage cruising.

Built on an outstanding 60-year reputation as the on-the-water authority for cruising boaters, Waterway Guide Magazine complements Waterway Guide's line of prestigious cruising volumes. The print run of 25,000 copies is distributed to marinas, national marine retail stores, bookstores and at boat shows at a $4.95 cover price, with subscriptions available at www.waterwayguide.com or by calling 800-233-3359.

The Winter/Spring issue of Waterway Guide Magazine is 156 pages and includes a comprehensive Coastal Marina Directory, with information on select marinas from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico and stunning aerial photography.
